

USING FRACTALS TO STUDY THE STRUCTURE OF TREES

Presented By:

ROBYN MACIVOR

May 5, 2009

UC 309

12:30 pm-12:50 pm

Of all the interesting properties of fractals, the most important idea is that of non-integer dimension. The dimensions of fractals, and how to relate them to modeling the structure of trees will be introduced in this presentation.

